Dear Ms/Mr,

The National Scientific Research Institute in the field of Labour and Social Protection invite you on 18th of November 2021, started from 9.30, at Annual Scientific Conference, with international participation, 2021 edition “The strategic cycle 2021-2030. Challenges and consequences for employment, social protection and education systems and people’s welfare” – Agenda attached

The session will be hosted ONLINE (via zoom) with three thematic sections, as follows:

- (1) Designing, implementing, and evaluating employment-growth interventions in the context of the new strategic cycle; lessons learned from the experiences of the 2014-2020 cycle,
- (2) The welfare state in a changing world; approaches and challenges in the Romanian context,
- (3) The European Green Deal: “The just transition” – the case of Romania; effects on employment, consequences on the design and management of social protection systems, and a debate section ”Developing R&D partnerships and networks – opportunities, costs, and challenges for the decade ahead”.

We would be honoured if you would attend our conference.

With special consideration,

Dr. Vasilica Ciuca

General Manager
