	Objective 1: Employment quality, performance and competitiveness in the labour market digitization
	Project Title
1	The new geography of the jobs in Romania - spatial perspectives of labour market
2	Impact of labour market institutions on informality. Micro and macro approaches
3	Assessing the effectiveness and impact of the National Strategy for Employment 2014-2020 mid-term implementation
4	Increasing labour market flexibility in Romania by expanding and diversification of work contracts
5	Micro modelling of the correlation "wage-productivity" for medium enterprises by activities of national economy
6	Evaluating the quality of employment in small firms
7	Workforce economic sector health and social services: employment and adequacy present and predicting the future evolution
	Objective 2: Reducing social inequalities, social inclusion
8	Educational inequalities: effects on labour market participation
9	Models for Impact assessment of taxation and social policy on the inequalities of income, results for Romania
10	Methodological proposals on study of wage inequality issues in Romania and the impact of growing minimum wage on economy
	Objective 3: Improving the quality of human capital and labor mobility
11	Young NEET's in Romania: causes, skills and strategies for education and reintegration into the labour market
12	Migration for study: determinants and effects
13	The inclusion of inadequate employment skills in predicting effects on the labour market performances by statistical matching techniques
14	Wage setting mechanisms to stimulate the labour market insertion of young people
15	Mechanisms for enhancing the access to early education services in Romania
	Objective 4: Innovative social systems
16	Impact assessment of social security benefits on reducing extreme poverty in Romania
17	Mechanism for the sustainability of the Romanian pension system in a fair distributional	